THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

I OFFER FOR SALE that well known and desirable Farm, formerly owned by R. W. Edmundson, near Stantonsburg, Wilson County, N. C. It is situated on the County Road leading from Goldsboro' to Tarboro. The Tract contains of which 365 are cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. Plenty of MARL easy of access. A good variety of Fruits and Vineyards, good Water, a healthy locality and intelligent and refined society. Dwelling House with 8 commodious rooms, nearly new. All out-houses necessary on a Farm.

The Farm is adapted to the growth of COTTON, CORN, VEGETABLES, and everything else usually grown in this section. It is located 7 miles from the W. & W. R. R., and is certainly one of the most beautiful situations in Eastern Carolina. I deem further description unnecessary, as no one would purchase without looking for himself. Come and see growing crop, without fertilizers or compost.

TERMS:—$2,000 cash, (currency,) and 100 bales of Cotton, (425 lbs. per bale,) payable in three annual instalments, with interest computed on Cotton at 15 cts. per lb. I have no hesitation in saying that I believe 100 acres in Cotton will pay the entire Cotton in two years. It is a rare chance for a good investment. Such property is seldom put in market. I am not confined exclusively to the above terms. The subscriber or Mr. Edmundson will take pleasure in showing the property to those wishing to purchase.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE, FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3 310 coils against 25,-193 last year."

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $230 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently, the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$14.92	$33.10	45	$28.57	$41.63

35	19.78	40.53	55	46.28	60.75
40	23.47	45.51	60	60.83	[illegible]

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES YOU ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON, [illegible] DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

MR. ADAMS' SPEECH.

We have occupied our space for two days, with Mr. Adams' great speech in South Carolina, out of respect to the kind objects of his mission to the South, and not in the hope that it can have any good influence upon the canvass now progressing. Had he come South a year or more ago, he might have been instrumental in effecting public opinion more potently than now.

Mr. Adams, though the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, views matters evidently from a Radical or Republican stand-point, because perhaps, his honest convictions will not allow him to do otherwise. The fates may have fixed universal negro suffrage upon us. If so, the fates have decreed the downfall of the Republic. We believe that universal suffrage of all persons, white, black and otherwise, is the bane of a Republic and will overthrow it.

Opposition to universal suffrage in the South is not the result of hostility or unkindness to the colored race. It is the conviction that it will be used as an instrument of ruin to our republican institutions. The South will guarantee to do all for the negro, that the North will, in proportion to its ability, and vastly more. The real friendship for the blacks of the Southern people is a life-growth, and it would be perpetual, if the North would let us manage our own affairs.

A PALPABLE HIT.—We see, says the Charlotte Democrat, that Gen. Kilpatrick, in speeches at the North, attempts to create mirth by describing the capture of Gov. Vance by Federal troops at the close of the war. He says he captured Vance and tamed him by riding him 200 miles on a bare-backed mule. The statement is a false one, and of course Gen. Kilpatrick knows it. Gov. Vance was never captured by any one. After the war was over he was arrested at his home in Statesville and carried to Washington and kept in prison for a while.

Wonder if Gen. Kilpatrick tells his hearers about the capture of a woman he was carrying along with him through South and North Carolina, and palming her off as his wife.

Dr. L. W. Martin, of Beaufort and Judge Manly addressed a large crowd in Newbern at the Seymour and Blair Club House on Tuesday night. The Journal of Commerce says that Dr. Martin's speech was characterized by ability and vim and produced a fine effect. Judge Manly's remarks were telling and appropriate.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator publishes the withdrawal of J. P. Sorrells Jr., J. H. Camps, Wm. Q. Wallace, Amos Baily, Asa Baily and George Green, from the Union Leagues in its last issue. Large numbers are leaving the rotten concern in many places.

TONE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS.

The tone of the Democratic press of North Carolina, though recognizing the disappointment of their hopes in the results of the recent Northern elections, yet as we expected, exhibit no marks of faltering or discouragement.

The principles for which we are contending and the ability and character of our leaders, Seymour and Blair, are worthy of a manly, legitimate and earnest contest.—The Democrats and Conservatives of the North, are clearly sufficient in numbers to to carry the elections in November, if they do not shamelessly abandon their principles and meanly succumb to the immense and despotic money-power, which seeks to grind to powder the enterprise, industry and labor of the North and South. If the people, the great American people, will discard the political tricksters and purse-proud bond-holders of the country, and take the matter in their own hands, they will carry Seymour and Blair through, triumphantly in November.

The Wilmington Journal says:

The capacity of our citizens has been too thoroughly tried to admit of entire discomfiture. They feel that the Democratic cause in which they are so thoroughly interested has not received that support at the hands of their Northern brethren the exigencies of the times merit; yet their determination to will and to do has been increased ten fold, and the Democrats having suffered defeat in the States where they thought victory assured, they are determined more than ever that North Carolina shall redeem herself and send such cheering news to the North that they must and will elect Seymour and Blair. North Carolina must cast her vote for the candidates of truth and honor, and if on the 3d. day of November her Northern sisters, or even a portion of them, will but follow her example, all will be well yet, and we shall triumph.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce thus speaks:

As an humble follower of the true political faith, standing amid the wreck of hopes too confidently placed upon the preliminary battle whose results have given the vantage to the foe, we turn to our fellow worshippers and say: "All is not lost." The final struggle, it is true, must now be more desperate, the labor more untiring, and the difficulties to surmount more arduous, than would have fallen to our lot had we secured the vantage ground we have lost; but should success attend our efforts, the victory we shall achieve will be more crushing, and the final overthrow of the altars of a false faith be the more lasting.

Then let us arouse for action, and casting aside every fear, and all despondency, and placing our offerings upon the altars of a pure political worship, let us strike one more blow for our faith, our country and our God.

The Wilmington Star, in an article expressing its hopefulness in the final result, says:

"We do not feel dispirited. We yet believe that our success in November is almost assured, if we will do our whole duty.—Though the Presidential issues entered somewhat into the late canvass, the result Tuesday is by no means decisive of the result in November.

It is our honest conviction that a great change is now going on in the minds of the Northern people of the South; and we believe that this reaction will continue until the Presidential election."

The Goldsboro Messenger gallantly says:

If we have been beaten, let it but fill every Democratic bosom with renewed energy and determination in the good cause—let us recover from the staggering blow with wings freshly plumed for the coming contest, and move forward with an activity, zeal and resolution all the more enlivened and strengthened, confident of the righteousness of our cause and placing our faith in the protecting arm of a good-rewarding God, remembering that "Truth crushed to earth will rise again."

NORFOLK COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

A very large number of delegates met at the Opera House, in Norfolk, on Wednesday last, composed of representatives from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Kentucky. The Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock, by Colonel Lamb, who welcomed the delegates in a neat and appropriate speech. Judge McKinney, of Knoxville, Tenn., was chosen temporary Chairman, and Col. W. Taylor, of Norfolk, Secretary.

A Committee composed of the Chairman of each delegation was then appointed to select permanent officers for the Convention, which reported the following who were unanimously selected:

President—George W Bolling, of Petersburg.

Vice Presidents—P C Johnson, A D Dickinson and David I Burr, of Va; P C Nelson, R J McKenney and L S Marye, of Tenn; Col Henry A Gilliam, D S Hill and Major Seaton Gales, of N C; —— Carlisle, Colonel B B Spaulding and J B Spaulding, of Ala; and Col W P D Boush, Wm B Hoell, and C P Rudoe, of Ky.

Secretaries—W J Ramage, of Tenn; Robt H Glass, of Va; P S Hill, of N C; S W Dunnegan, of Ala; and M W La Rue, of Ky.

Mr. Bolling accepted the position of President in a brief speech. Mr. Clapp, of Memphis, Hon. Jno. Goode, Jr., of Norfolk, and Messrs. Staples, Mayre, of Memphis, and others, being called for, addressed the Convention.

Gen. Mahone submitted a report of the Bristol Convention, which referred to direct trade and cognate subjects, and was referred to the Committee on business.

On motion of Col. Lamb, a Committee of seven from each State represented was then appointed to prepare and report business for the Convention. The Convention then took a recess until 3½ o'clock, P. M.

At half past three, the business of the Convention was resumed. Gen. Mahone was appointed a member of the business Committee, at large, and the following from this State were appointed on the Committee:

North Carolina.—C. B. Root, N. Price, Douglas Bell, Dr. Wm. R. Miller, Jno. R. Williams, Wm. G. Upchurch, and S. R. Stubbs.

After the adoption of sundry resolutions and the appointment of other Committees, the Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock, on Thursday. The press of the country was quite largely represented, Maj. Gales, of the Sentinel, being the only one announced from North Carolina.

ADAMS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

CONCLUDED.

I think that universal suffrage was probably forced on you when it was and as it was by the vagrant laws which several of your Southern legislatures passed soon after the war closed. These were instantly caught up at the North and constantly paraded to prove that you were determined to restore slavery in the person of her sister, enforced servitude for poverty, or if not, yet it was shown that you were unfit to be left in charge of the freedmen. Now there are doubtless grave difficulties in the problem which this vast, ignorant, and from want of education and training, frequently thriftless and vagrant population, presented to you for solution. The embarrassments are also more apparent to you on the spot than to those unfamiliar with the surrounding and preceding circumstances. But admitting, for the sake of argument, that the laws were needful, humane, and wise, they were exceedingly inopportune and unfortunate for you. The North was naturally exceedingly sensitive on this point. The slaves had been recommitted by us for our own ends, and if we had left them exposed to your anger, or caprice, or vengeance, it would indeed be an indelible stain upon our shield. We had become guardians of the freedmen, and we must be faithful to our trust. The most calm and moderate men were as clear as the loudest and most noisy, that it was an undoubted obligation on our part to secure by all means in our power their security and happiness. It had long been urged that it was impossible to insure safety for the blacks among you, except by arming them with the franchise, and your vagrant laws added the practical proof which was alone needed to decide the theoretical deduction. Again, it was vehemently asseverated and shown by innumerable letters from all kinds of people that, in their opinion, it would be impossible for a man holding strong Northern opinions about slavery and the war to come down here and speak freely or travel without molestation and annoyance, or to settle here with safety. It was said that free speech was dangerous, open discussion prohibited, or allowed only under protest and persecution for political opinion was universal. It is very generally believed by us that if you had your own way you would endure no contradiction and tolerate no dissent, and it is published every day that even now the negro voter is freely coerced by you to vote against his conscience.

My purpose is not to discuss the justice of these charges or their validity, but to state them to you clearly, to show the process which has aided in fixing your present condition whether they are true or false.—The fact that they were used as the most potent engines to build up and sustain a public opinion which could sanction and support the reconstruction acts, discovers at once that a general belief in their truth was at all events considered by the Radical leaders essential to their purpose—a determination never to yield us peaceable possession—which you must overcome before you can have peace. For the North is determined, as I believe, to retain and establish as the legitimate results of the war these general positions, with all the logical consequences necessary for their convenient enjoyment; first, the utter renunciation of the doctrine of secession; second, the entire extirpation of slavery and all its family; third, a fair and unhampered career for the freedmen; fourth, the equal right of every citizen of the United States to travel, speak, [illegible] infringe the rights of others. I do not believe that any considerable portion of the people would be willing to sacrifice any part of these acquisitions.

The most effective battery against the Democratic party to day is, that they are willing to abandon to you some or all of these trophies. If it were conceded on all hands that you were faithfully and unalterably determined never again to struggle by force or fraud for their restoration, and the bare question was whether the Constitution should be restored or reconstruction maintained, I think the result would never be in doubt. The great desideratum, therefore, for your restoration to constitutional privileges seemed to me to be first to deserve and to obtain the confidence of our Northern communities in your acquiescence in good faith in these results of the war.

But you will doubtless say, "We have deserved it; we have done our best to obtain it; but we have failed, and and we are growing careless and desperate of ever securing it, do what we will." My friends, you must remember that confidence is at best a plant of very slow growth, and when surrounded by an atmosphere so hostile as ours the only wonder is that it is not utterly killed. You must not forget that we are in the midst of the most exciting election ever held, and it is the passion of a few, the interest of many, and the business of a multitude to defeat the Democratic party. You must bear in mind that you yourselves, by your exertions in favor of that party, which seems to you, not unnaturally just now, your only means of escape from misery, encourage misunderstanding and inflame suspicion. In view of all these facts I do not think you can look for a candid and tolerable dispassionate review of your unhappy case until after the Presidential election at least, and probably not until some time has elapsed after it, to allow the fermentation inseparable from it to subside. The gravest misfortune which I apprehend from delay arises from the tendency of misgovernment to harden discontent into disaffection, and exasperate the sense of injury into a sentiment of settled resentment.—This deplorable result is likely to happen—nay, 'tis almost sure to follow, if you do not summon your utmost patience and fortitude. I pray you, my friends, to struggle with all your might against the inroads of discouragement and the temptations of despair. If you can muster the endurance to wait calmly, and labor honestly and heartily for your redemption, your reward, if late, will be rich and abundant. I cannot believe that a people which has shown such power of intense and prolonged exertion as your did in the war, will prove lacking in the high quality of patient self-command, and especially when your whole future depends upon it.

What else can you do? The idea of a second appeal to arms is madness. It is the dream of the suicide which could alone induce you to take arms against a sea of troubles, and, by opposing, end them. If any of you, in the inmost recesses of your heart, has ever harbored such a thought, banish it at once and forever. Better, ten thousand times better, for yourselves, your wives, your daughters, and for your country to "bear the ills you have, than fly to others that you know not of." As your Committee truly and wisely say in their letter of invitation to me, "The policy of the South is peace, it is her only hope; you will see this with your eyes and hear it with your ears"—and I have seen with my eyes and heard with my ears, and I am persuaded that all this people know that they are right and feel as they do upon this point.—I fear also that the admission of all the negroes in these States to suffrage and the exclusion of substantially all the leading men of the South from a share in shaping your constitutions and laws, coming when it did and as it did, will seriously aggravate the difficulties which beset your way back to a cheerful and peaceful re-establishment of mutually satisfactory relations. Taken by itself I think you might render it tolerable with universal amnesty. I imagine that many of its more alarming features would disappear, or be very much ameliorated.

The tendency of this portion of the reconstruction policy to encourage a class of political demagogues to stir up strife and ill feeling between whites and blacks here upon which to found their own political fortunes, is undoubtedly one of the gravest defects of the system in its practical working. It embitters relations which might be cordial and must be friendly if you are to dwell together in peace and prosperity, and here again I must urge you to be patient, difficult though it may be, to call a little philosophy to your aid. Such a convulsion as you have experienced, must needs leave a multitude of lesser ruptures in its train which require time more than anything else to readjust, with a return to constitutional government.

I think that even universal suffrage, supposing it was found necessary to let it stand as it is, as a choice of evils, for I certainly regard it as an evil at this time and place, might be made compatible with good order, good government, and good feeling, considering the relations which formerly existed between the two races, and the great advantage which the wealthy, educated and intelligent land-owner is always bound to possess in agricultural communities. I think you can hardly deprecate or dread competition with adventurous strangers upon a fair field of rivalry. Your legitimate and proper influence, fairly exerted, must prove in the long-run, more persuasive than that of strangers, or others, who are lacking in these advantages. At least, this has been the general experience in other countries, but in order to secure a fair opportunity even to try the experiment, it is essential that the dangerous element of hostility of race should be kept out of the calculation. If that power once fastens firmly on your vitals your political future is desperate, or curable only by an antidote which I cannot contemplate with calmness.

Next then to peace, I think, you are bound to cultivate friendly relations with the negroes among you. Your true interests are identical, and their identity must, in time, become as apparent as it is demonstrated. You must spare no effort and no practical measures in your power to show this clearly, both by word and deed, to the freedmen. You have no right to forego this exertion; an honest and manful attempt now may save you incalculable mischief by-and-by. I do not see, nor have I been able to discover during my stay among you, that you do as yet cherish any ill will to the negro. I have found but one sentiment of kindness expressed towards him, and why should it be otherwise. He was faithful to you in your years of struggle. He never, when he might, rose upon your defenceless homes. When you were at the front he did not free himself. If he is ignorant it is by no fault of his, and it should be your care, as it certainly is your interest, to instruct him. If from ignorance and experience he is liable to be abused and misled, it is your place to protect and direct him. If he is poor and distressed it is your duty to help him if you are able, and all this you know and feel as well as I do, and on the other hand I would say to the colored men here at the South, that I entertain the kindest feelings to them, and feel a deep solicitude to their permanent welfare and happiness. In all sincerity I would tell them I fear that their present importance in politics is likely to be used for purposes which are dangerous to their [illegible] being. As they are situated a condition of permanent alienation and hostility between them and the whites can only issue in disastrous results to their eventual prosperity and progress. To both whites and blacks I would counsel the most forebearing and patient consideration for each other. Your cares are difficult enough at best. For God's sake do not make them hopeless by needless misunderstanding, or anger or ill blood.

I think that even if you were free to do as you liked, that a wise policy would dictate the education and gradual enfranchisement of the negroes as fast as they were fit for it. No free people can afford to perpetuate ignorance among its people, for ignorance is its internecine enemy. Nor do I think that any statesmanlike policy in a republic can suffer any permanent exclusion of any class of its citizens from a share in the government of the commonwealth. I know we have had governments at the North looking to some such in regard to a foreign policy, as many sincere men now are urging upon you.

In reference to the colored people, the cry of "America for Americans," has been as loud and more popular than the about that "this is a white man's government." I can adopt neither, and I beg you not to be tempted by your present evils, to make the latter your political shibboleth. Be farseeing and generous enough to take a loftier stand and see this broad land to be the refuge of the oppressed of all nations, and of all races and colors, where the civil rights are respected and an interest in the common Government is conceded as such as a due regard to the safety and good order of all will permit. Nothing can be a more fruitful source of discontent and disturbance than the existence among you of a caste hopelessly excluded from political privileges.

My friends, I am trespassing upon your kindness, but upon a subject so broad as the one we are considering to day it is impossible to be concise. Your relations to the political parties of the North have a very important bearing upon your fate, at all events, just now, and demand careful meditation. Most of you doubtless regard the success of the Democratic party as essential to your release from your present situation, but it is my duty to remind you that men in your position have no right to be bigoted partisans. You must of course feel a deep interest in the success of those who espouse your cause, and you may properly exert all legitimate influences to promote their success, but you ought not to shut the door to aid from any source. I have already deprecated unreasonable and undistinguishing hostility to the Republican party; I would now warn you against an absolute and exclusive devotion to any party. If the Democracy succeed in electing their candidates you will be subjected to temptations as trying as the demand upon your sufferance may prove in case Gen. Grant is chosen. Hasty, ill considered, passionate, violent action in the event of Democratic success would be almost sure in the end to turn to your discomfiture and render your last estate worse than the first, and yet it will require a good deal of self command to control the reaction from this depression; but the country even in that event will be so evenly divided and so greatly excited, that a small thing may induce a terrible catastrophe. On the other hand, in case of Gen. Grant's election, you will be called on to exercise a while longer your patience and forbearance. I am sure it will be rewarded in the end. I do not believe that Gen. Grant is your enemy. I feel sure he means kindly to you, and will try to do justice and show mercy in his course to you. A large mass of Republicans will help you if you will do your best to help yourselves. A great majority of all the North only wait to be sure it is safe to take you cordially by the hand once more. Bide, then, your time in either event. Possess your souls in patience. Call to your aid that grandest of human qualities, self-control, and all will be well.

This nation has had too much of violence and headlong haste. You, in particular, have had a terrible warning against heat and passion. Keep cool, and watch your chance, come whence it will. Above all things, do nothing to render it more difficult than it now is for either party to return to the Constitutional system. If you favor haste and passion in the Democratic party, or by impatience strengthen the hands of the extreme men in the Republican party, you equally retard the coming of your only true salvation—a re-establishment upon safe and lasting foundations of the temple of constitutional liberty which our fathers reared.—Keep your eyes fixed steadily upon this as a pole star to steer your political course by. Stop your ears to the blandishments of this temptation of immediate relief on the one hand, or that seduction of gratified passion on the other. Summon all your self restraining manhood, and you shall sail safe between the Scylla and Charybdis which perplex your way.

My friends, I have almost done, and I will detain you but a moment longer to suggest some thoughts which, as a citizen of Massachusetts and a native of New England, have long occupied my mind and seem to to me appropriate to this meeting on the soil of South Carolina. Separated as our States have been for many years in sentiment, their substantial interests are very similar. Their material wants and products are correlative. Their political interests are likely to be identical, and their popular characteristics are counterparts. I do not mean by counterparts that they are alike, but that one is the supplement of the other. The one cold, cautious, and thoughtful; the other warm, impulsive, and impressionable. Combine these qualities and you double their power by regulating and economizing their force. Nor need we look far to foresee their political affiliation in the future if all goes well.

The policy of the seaboard States, in reference to the great questions of financial, industrial and commercial interests, which must inevitably replace the incidents left by the war as soon as they are disposed of can hardly fail to be nearly related. The next great political division promises to be one of water sheds rather than of sections. The great interior basin can and will, if she likes, dictate to the outer slopes of the mountains, and they will need a good understanding among themselves, and a pretty cordial co-operation of measures, and a good strong constitution, too, to retain and uphold their present place in the general policy. Look, too, for a moment, at their industry and products. We, of New England, are naturally, and I hope we shall always be, a ship building, sea-going, commercial people, carrying and fishing, and toiling everywhere upon the face of the waters. You produce the cotton, and rice, and timber, and turpentine, which we carry and consume. We are deeply interested in manufactures, which you desire, while we work upon your raw materials with our busy spindles.

I cannot dwell upon details, but if I am at all right in my ideas, we can be mutually useful to each other. Whether this be so or not, there has long been enmity between us. Let it be so no longer. We have cherished our dislike, magnified our causes of complaint, and brooded over our wrongs.—Let us forgive and forget. With slavery, its cause, let all our feeling cease. Let us be friends and brothers once more, as our forefathers in the grand old days of the revolution were before us. In the name of that common heroic ancestry, by the memories of every battle-field of the War of Independence, let our dissensions cease. Let good will and brotherly love cast out old bitterness, and let us all hasten the day when Massachusetts and South Carolina may stand once more, hand warmly grasped in hand, under the old ancestral roof tree and beneath the old flag. My fellow-citizens of South Carolina, I thank you for the attentive audience you have given to me, although I fear I have been tedious and perhaps some of my views are distasteful to you. I have carefully avoided any attempt to stir your feelings or amuse your minds. It did not seem to me an occasion for eloquence if I had it, or humor if I felt it. I am deeply and seriously impressed with the difficulties under which you labor, and the dangers which threaten our system of government, and I have spoken seriously because I felt serious. Whatever may come of it, I shall feel amply rewarded it by any chance I may have turned one heart to a calm, patient, earnest effort to forward, so far as in it lies the restoration of the Constitution and the Union.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. H. Crow, Esq., notifies the public of the removal of his office, &c.

R. H. Lee, late of Chapel Hill, announces his fashionable Boot and Shoe making establishment.

D. G. Crenshaw, Esq., of Pitt, offers a fine article of Cotton Seed for sale.

W. H. Jones & Co. have a valuable Farm for sale or exchange, and nicely cleaned Oats, &c.

J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis,) is receiving additional importations.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of Mr. Quentin Bryant, on a charge of killing Wiley Sauls, deceased, which occurred two years ago, during an excitement in which several pistols were used, has been on trial for two days. It will be concluded to-day. Mr. Bryant has always protested his innocence of the charge and we learn the evidence is very strongly in that direction.

Rev. Wm. S. Lacy late of this city, is now serving the Church at Max Meadows, Wythe Co., Va. His correspondents will remember this.

ARRESTED.—We learn that the footsteps of the parties who are supposed to have stolen harness, &c., from Gen. Miles, on Wednesday, were tracked for several miles, and that two white men, named Mason and Waddell, were arrested on yesterday, on suspicion and brought before the Mayor.

The excellent mills of the Rock Island Manufacturing Company at Charlotte are turning out 1000 yards per day of the very best jeans and cassimeres &c., used in the country.

The Baptist State Convention will assemble at Hillsboro, on the 28th. of the present month.

There is a Theological Institute at Charlotte for the education of colored preachers connected with the Northern Presbyterian Church. Rev. W. L. Miller has been chiefly instrumental in getting it up.

The Messrs. Tiddy it is said own the two paper mills near Lincolnton which turn out a large amount of paper.

The paper mill at Shelby is owned by Mr. Fronberger. The paper mills are doing well.

A. R. Dennison the recently elected Radical Sheriff of Craven a few days ago, seized the horse of a Mr. Everson, for an alledged infringement of the retail liquor law. Mr. E. resisted the seizure by an appeal to the law, but the horse was in the possession of a man to whom the Sheriff had hired him and when returned to the owner was in a foundered condition. The Sheriff has been arrested by the Coroner on a charge of detaining and damaging the horse, and was bound over for his appearance at the next Superior Court.

Rev. Archibald Currie, Moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina has authorized Mr. Doll the stated Clerk, to change the time of holding the next Synod, at Wilmington, to Wednesday the 18th. of November 1868, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. instead of the time previously appointed.

Dr. Jones, the Superintendent of the Mint at Charlotte, thinks the gold mines of North Carolina, are now yielding about $500,000 annually. Gold is found in twenty-five Counties of the State, besides other valuable metals.

The Sheriff of Fayetteville is collecting the muskets in the hands of the people, belonging to the United States Government. We presume they are generally worthless for want of use and from bad usage.

PETERSBURG AND NORTH CAROLINA.

While so strenuous an effort is being made to induce the trade of the West to come this way, it would be unwise in the people of Petersburg to neglect that which lies at their door, and that to which they owe whatever of prosperity they have here tofore enjoyed. We mean the North Carolina trade and that of the adjacent counties Our Petersburg Railroad gives us a connection with a cotton, wheat and tobacco country. And it so happens that Petersburg is a market for these products which experience has proved is unsurpassed by any other.

The prosperity of our city depends, and will ever in a large measure depend, on the prosperity of North Carolina farmers. And while it is well to urge the completion of deep water communication which will give us a wider field for the exertion of individual enterprise, it would be very unwise to neglect the richest field already open to us.

The wise man tells us that he who despises small things shall fall by little and little. Let us not, in a dream of future good fortune, neglect the opportunities of the present. Let us cultivate and extend our business connections with North Carolina. If the merchants of Petersburg will keep the patronage of the old North State, it will keep them.

The war which disrupted so many natural ties, also threw a large portion of the North Carolina trade into new courses.—Let us do what we can to re knit those ties and bring this trade back to its old and natural channel.

Our cotemporary the Petersburg Index is correct in the above suggestion. Petersburg and Norfolk, though in Virginia, are intrinsically North Carolina towns and have been chiefly sustained by North Carolina trade. We have felt much regret to hear of the low state of trade in Petersburg for some time. Its capital and consequently its energy have been seriously affected by the war. Norfolk is the only place in Virginia and North Carolina, that seems to have risen to and exceeded its former prosperity.

EPISCOPAL GENERAL CONVENTION.—On Sunday last Bishop Atkinson, of this State, preached in Brooklyn. The New York World says:

"Bishop Johns, of Virginia preached in the Church of the Holy Trinity, from the text John i., 12: "But as many as received Him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even them that believed on his name." The Bishop's discourse was one of the good, plain, old-fashioned "evangelical" kind, meddling not with politics or church controversies, but confined to a simple, analytical exposition of his subject. He explained, first, who it was (viz Christ) that was spoken of as "received" in the text, and next described the fallen condition of those who received him. The phrase, "to them gave he power," was commented upon at length, and it was shown that all strength to do good is given of God. The particular methods by which God works in regeneration—as the enlightenment of the mind and the work of the Holy Spirit on the heart—were fully descanted upon. Lastly, he exhibited the part that God and man respectively have in the work. Man must be absolutely willing, then God does all the rest. He must be received solely, entirely, undividedly—easy terms, yet frequently found hard. But to those terms man must come. He is guilty, not only if he resists or derides, but if he simply fails to receive Christ.—The Bishop's discourse was listened to by a very large congregation."

It further states, that Right Rev. Dr. Coxe, Bishop of Western New York, presented on Saturday a mammoth petition of 100 feet long to the House of Bishops, the largest ever presented to the Episcopal Church on any subject. This petition embraces the names of the clergy who have signed the petition for a commission to be appointed to meet a similar commission from the Methodists with reference to church union.

The N. Y. Herald says:

In the Episcopal Convention on Saturday a petition was presented asking a fuller explanation of the intent and meaning of section 6, canon 12, title 1, and canon 11, title 1, which refer to services of ministers outside their own parishes and for a violation of which Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., was tried and reprimanded some time ago. The petition was referred to the Committee on Canons. A resolution to appoint a standing committee to consider and report upon the intercourse or synodical union of the Episcopal with any other portion of the Church was offered and made a special order for Wednesday. A motion was made to continue the musical portion of the service during the session of the Convention and to request the surpliced choir of boys of Trinity Chapel to assist. Great difference of opinion appears to exist in regard to surplices, and about eighty members are reported to have waited outside the edifice on Thursday until the chaunting of this surpliced choir was concluded. In consequence of this Dr. Swopes directed the choir not to appear again, and thus arose the motion. A warm and eager debate on the question appeared imminent, but the President stayed it by declaring the House adjourned until Monday.

GOLD AND SILVER.—A private letter from Bastrop, Texas, says that gold and silver constitute the currency. Greenbacks are totally ignored, and the town itself claims to be independent of Yankee jurisdiction. The population is 1,500.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

PITTSBORO', Oct. 13, 1868.

Editors of the Sentinel:—During the recent visit of Col. John T. Deweese, to this village, the following dialogue took place between him and one of our prominent citizens:

Deweese—Well, I must compliment your people. They are so respectful to strangers, they listen so attentively. I never saw a more quiet people in all my life.

Democrat—Well Col., they are quiet it is true. But don't you think they would be more quiet if you would send on a lot of Sharp's Rifles and have them shot?

Deweese—(Changing color and forcing a laugh) Well, well; why did you not send on your name to me? I would have had your difficulties removed, and you could have held office.

Democrat—I must tell you frankly Col. Deweese, I ask no favors of you or the present Congress. I don't want my disabilities removed until the disabilities of all are removed. I prefer to suffer afflictions with the people of God, than to enjoy the fruits of sin for a season. By the by, we have a good man to oppose you for Congress.

Deweese—Oh! I don't know that I shall be a candidate; that will be determined at the Convention.

Democrat—Buy them off—buy them off.—(Col. made no reply; only clutched at his carpet-bag that lay before him in his buggy.) Here is one of your bankrupt friends, Colonel—(Pointing to Mr. L.)—They all scraped up money enough to file their petitions and paid it to you and they regret your leaving the office, as they have all taken up the idea that you are a first rate hand to take care of money.

Deweese—Ah! well, everybody has taken up the idea that I am worth a great deal more than I am. I am not as rich as they think I am.

Democrat—By the by, I was only a few miles behind you the other day as you came up from Raleigh, and every one thought after you passed along that you had bought the Chatham Railroad and paid $3,000,000 for it. Said you offered to let out contracts on the Road, were going to give good contracts, &c. I say have you bought it?

Deweese—Oh no! I haven't any such a thing. It is true I did ask old Howell what he would get cross-ties at, &c. I have only $14,000 of stock in that road and I am going to sell that.

Democrat—Ah! Colonel—"preparing for a change of base are you?"

Deweese—(whipping up his horse)—No I am going to stay in North Carolina. I am going to stay.

ELECTION RETURNS—THE OFFICIAL VOTE NECESSARY TO DECIDE THE CONTEST IN PENNSYLVANIA—THE REPUBLICANS STILL CLAIM INDIANA BY 500 MAJORITY—VOORHEES' ELECTION DOUBTFUL—GEORGE W. JULIAN PROBABLY DEFEATED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16, M.

The latest from Indiana leaves Voorhees election doubtful, but defeats George W. Julian, the author of and supporter of all the severe measures against the South.

Potent party leaders express themselves regarding the proposed change of candidates, made by the New York World, that it is unwise, impracticable and equivalent to disbanding the Democratic forces. If a change is made it must be in obedience to the absolute withdrawal of the candidates of the Democratic Convention.

It is said that the official count is necessary to decide Pennsylvania.

LATER.

The latest returns from Indiana give Baker's majority 500, with one County unheard from, which went Republican last year. Voorhees' election is now doubtful. Julian's District is also close, but claimed by the Democrats.

PENNSYLVANIA.

No new figures. The Radicals still claim fifteen thousand majority.

Nothing new from Ohio.

NEW YORK Oct. 15, 1868.

FROM GEORGIA—RESOLUTIONS OF DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

ATLANTA, Oct. 16, P. M.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Georgia, issued the following to-day:

"It having been represented by Republican speakers in the present canvass, that the Southern people favor the re-establishment of slavery in the respective States, depriving them of their rights and suffrage, for the purpose of meeting this allegation and giving it a positive denial:

Resolved, By the Central Committee that the Democratic party of Georgia, representing the people of the State, affirm that the charge is unequivocally false, and for evidence that they do not desire to re-establish slavery and could not effect it if they would, refer to the fact that this State has assented to, and ratified amendments to the Constitution of the United States, forever abolishing slavery and involuntary servitude, except for crime whereof the party shall be legally convicted.

Resolved, That we reiterate the positions taken by this Committee in the State address and by the report of the Committee on the State of the Republic, adopted by the House of Representatives in the Legislature of this state, on the 23th ultimo, and do also endorse the address of Gen. Robert E. Lee, and others in response to a letter of General Rosecrans.

Resolved, That we submit to the present status of the colored race among us, and will protect them to the extent of our power in the right of suffrage secured to them by the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of this State."

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.

The President has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, November 26th, as a day of thanksgiving, as follows:

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

In the year which is now drawing to its end, the art, the skill and the labor of the people of the United States have been employed with greater diligence and vigor, and on border fields, than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been gathered into the granary and the storehouse in marvelous abundance. Our highways have been lengthened and new and prolific regions have been occupied. We are permitted to hope that long protracted political and sectional dissensions are at no distant day to give place to returning harmony and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, while nations which are far off, and which heretofore have been unsocial and exclusive, have become our friends.

The annual period of rest which we have reached is health and tranquility, and which is crowned with so many blessings, is, by universal consent, a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing public devotion.

I, therefore, recommend that Thursday, the 26th day of November next, be set apart and observed by all the people of the United States as a day for public praise, thanksgiving and prayer to the Almighty Creator and Divine Ruler of the universe, by whose ever watchful, merciful and gracious providence alone States no less than families and individual men, do live and move and have their being.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States the 93d.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President: WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, just once. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

COMING TO CREECH'S

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It palters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South, they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the cordial feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate dissension and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
